

Major Graham of Inchbrakie

Niel Gow

Slow

D Bm G D/F# Em A D Bm G D/A A G

D Bm G D/F# E⁷/G# A D Bm G D/A A D

Bm G D Em A Bm G D/A A G

Bm A G D E⁷ A D Bm G D/A A D

As taught by Pete Clark, with suggested bowing, to Riddell Fiddles, 15Sep20

This is the original melody that Robert Burns used for "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose". Inchbrakie House was the property adjacent to Abercairney, once home to the Moray family, near the town of Crieff in Perthshire. Both the Grahams and Morays were great friends and patrons of Niel Gow. Today neither house remains.